Cllr O’Reilly asked the Clerk to minute his query as to why the Chairman had not declared a “pecuniary interest” in respect of her involvement in the Tostock Chronicle.

The meeting went into recess to further discuss the issue raised but at this juncture the meeting became very unruly and disruptive.

Despite trying to call the meeting to order there were certain members of the public refusing to comply and although several warnings were given, the Chairman was left no option but to close the meeting at 7.50 p.m.
